Meetings

The Lodge at Sonoma features eight bright and airy meeting rooms, including two board rooms, in addition to the Stone Building and Ballroom. Each location offers state-of-the-art technical capabilities and comfortable settings. The majority of venues attach to patios and/or balconies inviting attendees to enjoy the outdoor ambiance during conference breaks.

Rejuvenate

Let your spirit emerge.

Nestled in the Valley of the Moon in the beautiful Sonoma wine region, Raindance Spa offers guests the utmost in relaxation, reflection, and revitalization.

Health and beauty indulgences are complimented by products and services from the local area including lavender, grape seed, olive oil, and mustard. Raindance Spa prides itself in serving both the guests in search of a pleasurable day of pampering, as well as those in need of specific therapy and treatment.

Our guests are invited to lose themselves in the Raindance Suite for hours at a time, experiencing the unique arrangement of therapies, returning to reality enriched and revitalized.
