

NAIW

HAIP Mission

In March 1947, Edith Norton-Harris arranged a luncheon, explaining to those in attendance the benefits of belonging to an insurance club. The exchange of information among the members would help everyone and the friendships that would be established would promote a general feeling of really belonging to the growing field of insurance. The idea was enthusiastically received and the Insurance Women's Club of Honolulu was formed. The name was later changed to the Honolulu Association of Insurance Women and today we are known as the Honolulu Association of Insurance Professionals.
